

Fulvic Acid

Biostimulant

A powerful natural chelator and plant growth promotor.

Why use Fulvic Acid?

Features	Benefits
Concentrated, highly soluble extracts of Fulvic Acid	Improved absorption and utilisation of available nutrients
A powerful biostimulant, tried and tested agricultural input	Enhance photosynthesis, especially beneficial during prolonged cloudy conditions
Known for its benefits as a natural “chelator”, plant growth promotor and detoxifying agent	Enhanced cell division and elongation leading to improved root development, improved breakdown and removal of toxins
Available in an 80% cost effective and freight friendly powder formulation	User friendly and economical formulations

Application instructions:

Use as a natural “chelator” by combining with foliar application of plant nutrients.

Soil Application	Powder	2 - 5 kg/ha applied as part of fertiliser blend.
Foliar Application	Powder	DIY Fulvic Acid Liquid - 120 g/L water, mix with vigorous agitation. Apply as per liquid recommendation.

Adermatt

Healthy Food and Healthy Environment, for all

E: support@andermatt.co.za
W: www.andermattafrika.com